Emergency Notification

MECC will immediately notify the campus community upon confirmation of a significant emergency or dangerous situation involving an immediate threat to the health or safety of students or employees unless doing so would compromise efforts to: assist a victim, contain the emergency, respond to the emergency, or otherwise mitigate the emergency. Emergency notifications will be issued by one or more of the following methods:

- Sirens will be activated when emergency situations exist that require the immediate lockdown of all or part of the campus.
- All emergency messages will be broadcast through telephones and will be sent via text message and e-mail.

Timely Warnings

In the event that a situation arises, either on or off campus, that, in the judgment of the Emergency Management Team, constitutes an ongoing or continuing threat, a campus wide “timely warning” will be issued. The warning will be issued through the college e-mail system, will be displayed on the college web site and will be communicated through the text messaging system to students, faculty and staff. Depending on the particular circumstances, the message may also be displayed on the electronic sign at the college’s entrance and on monitors in hallways inside buildings. Blackboard and social media may also be used to communicate information about an ongoing or continuing threat. Anyone with information warranting a timely warning should report the circumstances to MECC Police by phone at 276-523-7473 or in person in Godwin Hall room 150 or 153.

Tests of Emergency Response Procedures

MECC will conduct regularly scheduled drills, exercises, and appropriate follow-through activities designed for assessment and evaluation of emergency plans and capabilities at least once during the fall semester and once during the spring semester. Each announced test will be preceded by a text message and/or e-mail containing a link to the college’s emergency procedures. Documentation of each test will be retained for seven years and will include:

- A description of the test.
- The date the test was held and the time the test started and ended.
- Whether the test was announced or unannounced.

- G. MECC will ensure that the Substance Abuse Policy is reviewed on a biennial basis to:
1. determine its effectiveness and the need for changes, if any; and
 2. ensure that the sanctions developed are consistently enforced.

VII. Rehabilitation Programs

- A. MECC employees experiencing a problem with drug or alcohol abuse or dependency are encouraged to seek counseling assistance. programs for treatment of drug or alcohol abuse at the discretion of the College President.

VIII. Coverage of Personnel

This policy is applicable to all employees of Mountain Empire Community College.

Student Substance Abuse Policy

The following Student Substance Abuse Policy has been approved by the Virginia State Board for Community Colleges and adopted by Mountain Empire Community College:

Students attending a Virginia community college shall not possess, sell, use, manufacture, give away or otherwise distribute illegal substances, including drugs or alcohol while on campus, attending a college sponsored off-campus event, or while serving as a representative of the college at off-campus meetings. Students who violate this policy shall have college charges processed against them in the normal manner of due process provided by college rules. Further, students who violate this policy shall have committed a criminal offense, and the college shall notify the appropriate agency of the Commonwealth of Virginia, county or city government for investigation and, if warranted, prosecution.

Enforcement

MECC will cooperate with law enforcement authorities to enforce statutes regarding illegal substances, including alcoholic beverages. The college shall ensure that all law enforcement personnel employed have special training in dealing with illegal substance (including alcohol) abuse and detection.

In addition to criminal penalties, violation of school policies may result in disciplinary action by the college, including suspension or dismissal. Disciplinary action will follow the established procedures as outlined in the Student Handbook. These procedural standards are designed as safeguards to protect the student and ensure due process.

Education and Prevention

MECC is committed to helping individuals understand the impact of substance abuse. The college's program of education and prevention is designed to inform and help individuals make responsible decisions concerning the use and abuse of drugs and alcohol. Our program of education and prevention consists of the following:

- A. Inclusion of information on substance use and abuse in the MECC Student Wellness Program of Activities;
- B. Inclusion of information on drug use, abuse and prevention as part of the college curriculum (HLT 110);
- C. Seminars and workshops are available through the Student Services designed to promote a realistic understanding of individual societal concerns relative to substance abuse; and
- D. Books, pamphlets, and audio-visual aids available in the college library.

The college makes every effort to ensure that students recognize the health risks associated with the use of drugs and alcohol. Emphasis shall be placed on:

- A. The impairment of one's ability to make sound judgments; and
- B. The physiological damage to the human body.

The impact that substance abuse has on the development of one's potential is stressed in the education and prevention program. The college supports and sponsors activities and events that provide and demonstrate alternatives to the use of chemical substances.

Referral

The Office of Student Services maintains a referral list of community agencies that help with counseling and treatment.

Sexual Misconduct Policy

This policy shall apply to all employees and students of MECC. Sexual misconduct involving student to student, student to employee, employee to student, and employee to employee is contrary to the policy of the state board for community colleges and will not be tolerated on the MECC campus. An educational institution is a community of trust whose very existence depends on the recognition of each individual's importance and value. This trust creates the freedom for each individual to live, think, act, and speak without fear of physical harm. For employees, additional provisions of MECC Policy 1.23 may apply.

Sexual misconduct is prohibited, which includes both sexual assault and sexual harassment, is a flagrant violation of the values and behavioral expectations for a college community and all reported violations shall be aggressively investigated. Sexual misconduct may be punishable through civil and criminal proceedings, as well as through college disciplinary processes.

Sexual Assault

Sexual assault is defined as sexual intercourse without consent, including rape (whether by acquaintance or stranger), sodomy, or other forms of sexual penetration. To constitute lack of consent, the acts must be committed either by force, threat of force, intimidation, or through use of victim's mental helplessness of which the accused was aware or should have been aware. Mental helplessness includes incapacitation by alcohol or other drugs. Sexual assault also includes intentionally touching, either directly or through clothing, of the victim's genitals, breasts, thighs, or buttocks without the victim's consent, as well as touching or fondling of the accused by the victim when the victim is forced to do so against his or her will. Verbal misconduct, without accompanying physical contact as described above, is not defined as sexual misconduct. Verbal misconduct may constitute sexual harassment, which is also prohibited under MECC's regulations.

Sexual Harassment

Sexual harassment is defined as unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, or other verbal or physical conduct or written communication of a sexual nature which is intimidating, hostile, or offensive. Sexual harassment shall be considered to have occurred when:

- A. Accepting or tolerating such conduct is made a term or condition of a student's status or an individual's employment either explicitly or implicitly;
- B. Accepting or rejecting such conduct is used as the basis for academic or employment decisions affecting the student or employee; or;
- C. Such conduct creates an intimidating, hostile, or offensive working or learning environment, or substantially interferes with an employee's work performance or a student's academic performance.

Where there is probable cause to believe that campus regulations prohibiting sexual misconduct have been violated by a student or employee of the college, these reported violations will be aggressively investigated. Violations of this policy should be reported to the Security Officer, the Director of Student Services or the Human Resources Officer.

A student or employee charged with sexual misconduct can be prosecuted under Virginia criminal statutes and disciplined under the MECC conduct code. Even if the criminal justice authorities choose not to prosecute, the campus can pursue disciplinary action. This disciplinary action could result in dismissal from the college.

MECC has an obligation to uphold the laws of the community of which it is a part. While the activities covered by the laws of the community and those covered by MECC's rules may overlap, the community's laws and MECC's rules operate independently and do not substitute for each other. MECC may pursue enforcement of its own rules whether or not legal proceedings are underway or in prospect, and may use information from third party sources, such as law enforcement agencies and the courts, to determine whether college rules have been broken. MECC will make no attempt to shield members in the college community from the law; nor does it intervene in legal proceedings against a member of the community. Membership in the MECC community does not exempt anyone from local, state or federal laws, but rather imposes the additional obligation to abide by all of MECC's regulations.

In order to fall within the jurisdiction of the college, the alleged assailant must be an MECC student or employee, and the alleged assault must have been committed against a person on college-owned or leased property or at a college-sponsored or supervised function.

PREVENTION & EDUCATION

The College engages in comprehensive, intentional, and integrated programming, initiatives, strategies, and campaigns intended to reduce and eliminate Prohibited Conduct which:

- Are culturally relevant, inclusive of diverse communities and identities, sustainable, responsive to community needs, and informed by research, or assessed for value, effectiveness, or outcome; and
- Consider environmental risks and protective factors as they occur on the individual, relationship, institutional, community and societal levels.

Educational programming consists of primary prevention and awareness programs for all incoming students and new employees and ongoing awareness and prevention campaigns for students and employees that:

- a. Identifies domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault and stalking, as those terms are defined for purposes of the Clery Act, as prohibited conduct;
- b. Defines using definitions provided both by the Department of Education as well as state law what behavior constitutes domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, and stalking;
- c. Defines what behavior and actions constitute consent to sexual activity in Virginia
- d. Provides a description of safe and positive options for bystander intervention. Bystander intervention means safe and positive options that may be carried out by an individual or individuals to prevent harm or intervene when there is a risk of dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault or stalking. Bystander intervention includes recognizing situations of potential harm, understanding institutional structures and cultural conditions that facilitate violence, overcoming barriers to intervening, identifying safe and effective intervention options, and taking action accordingly;
- e. Delivers information on risk reduction. Risk reduction means options designed to decrease perpetration and bystander inaction, and to increase empowerment for victims in order to promote safety and to help individuals and communities address conditions that facilitate violence; and
- f. Provides an overview of information contained in the Annual Security Report in compliance with the Clery Act.

FACULTY, STAFF AND STUDENT TRAINING- In addition to the Title IX Coordinator's core responsibilities, additional services to the College community will include, working with campus resources to provide ongoing training to new/current students, faculty, and staff on Title IX issues and procedures

After normal business hours, members of the campus community should report alleged violations of this policy to campus police by dialing (276) 523-7473 or local police by dialing 911.

- C. There is no time limit for filing a complaint with the College. However, complainants should report possible violations of this Policy as soon as possible to maximize the College’s ability to respond effectively. Failure to report promptly could result in the loss of relevant evidence and impair the College’s ability to adequately respond to the allegations.

Procedures

Procedures for reporting and resolving sexual misconduct complaints are established and in place for all students and employees of MECC. Complaints may be

- A. handled through established grievance procedures;
- B. discussed or filed in writing with the college’s equal employment opportunity (EEO) officer;
- C. discussed or filed in writing with the Director of Student Services;
- D. handled through a formal hearing by the Student Affairs Committee; or
- E. discussed in the mediation process (an alternative to the formal hearing process).

Hearing by Student Affairs Committee

Hearing by the Student Affairs Committee (option D) would be an administrative hearing and not a criminal one; therefore, criminal court procedures would not be used as a model. The use of this procedure does not preclude the filing of a criminal or civil complaint against the accused. The victim may report the incident to the Commonwealth's Attorney who will consider the case and decide whether to prosecute. In this option the state accuses the alleged perpetrator, and the victim may serve as a witness for the state, or the victim may civilly sue the accused for monetary damages.

During the hearing process, both the accused and the survivor can be represented by a member of the college community to assist the parties in the presentation of evidence. Punishment that may be imposed against an accused found guilty of sexual misconduct include the full range of Student Affairs Committee sanctions, from reprimand to expulsion.

The hearing process is initiated by the survivor's filing a complaint in writing with the Director of Student Services within one year of sexual misconduct. The complaint is then forwarded to the chairperson of the Student Affairs Committee who confers with the parties and schedules the hearing.

Mediation Process

The mediation process (option E) provides an alternative to the formal hearing process. It is intended to allow the two people involved to discuss their respective understandings of the incident through the assistance of a counselor acting as the mediator. The goal of mediation is to facilitate the resolution of the incident to the satisfaction of both parties.

The fact that a survivor seeks mediation in no way implies responsibility for the incident on the part of the survivor. It does, however, give the survivor some control over the outcome of the procedures. The only parties present at the mediation session(s) are the two persons involved in the incident and the mediator. The mediator will listen to the parties and work with them to develop a written agreement on the key issues emerging from the incident, which may include an activity or behavior that one party has agreed to perform following the mediation. The agreement is kept on file in the office of the Director of Student Services. The penalty for violations of the agreement, as determined by the mediator, is one semester's suspension from the college. There is no statute of limitations on the mediation process.

Requests for mediation should be filed in writing with the Director of Student Services, who will discuss the mediation process and its appropriateness to a particular situation. Because both parties must voluntarily enter into mediation, the Director of Student Services will work with both parties to determine their willingness to participate in mediation. If both parties agree, a mediator will be assigned from the counseling staff. If at any time during mediation the process proves unsatisfactory to either party, the survivor is not precluded from pursuing other courses of action.

Convicted Sex Offender Registry

The Federal Campus Sex Crimes Prevention Act, enacted on October 28, 2000, requires institutions of higher education to issue a statement advising the campus community where law enforcement agency information provided by a State concerning registered sex offenders may be obtained. It also requires sex offenders already required to register in a State to provide notice, as required under State law, of each institution of higher education in that State at which the person is employed, carries on a vocation, volunteers' services or is a student. In Virginia, convicted sex offenders must register with the Virginia State Police. This information can be assessed at <http://sex-offender.vsp.virginia.gov/sor>.

Section 23-2.2:1 of the Code of Virginia requires that the Virginia Community College System (VCCS) send enrollment information to the Virginia State Police concerning applicants to institutions of higher education. This information is transmitted electronically and compared against the Virginia Criminal Information Network and National Crime Information Center Convicted Sexual Offender Registry. Language on the web application informs applicants that their information is being transmitted to the State Police.

In the event that an applicant to Mountain Empire Community College is listed on the Sex Offender Registry, the following procedures apply:

 - b. He/she will be blocked from all services pending the outcome of the appeal.
 - c. Student Services will be notified of the identification of the applicant as a registered sex offender and will initiate the process of notifying the applicant of their right, and procedures, to appeal.
 - d. He/she may invoke his/her rights to an appeal process.

2. Applicants who have enrolled in, and are already participating in, classes before the college receives notification from the VCCS/State Police:
 - a. The student may be withdrawn from classes in accordance with MECC's admission policy as published in the catalog:
The College reserves the right to evaluate and document special cases and to refuse or revoke admission if the college determines that the applicant poses a threat or is a potential danger to the college community or if such refusal or revocation is considered to be in the best interest of the college.
 - b. He/she will be blocked from all future services pending the outcome of an appeal.
 - c. Student Services will be notified of the identification of the applicant as a registered sex offender and will initiate the process of notifying the applicant of his/her right, and procedures, to appeal.
 - d. He/she may invoke his/her rights to an appeal process.

Appeal Process for Denial of Admission or Withdrawal for Convicted Sex Offender

When a convicted sex offender is denied admission to or is administratively withdrawn from classes at Mountain Empire Community College, he/she may invoke the following appeal process:
